JANUARY 2019

Dear Fellow Good Shepherds,

Christmas has passed and we welcome a New Year.....and with that New Year comes many changes. Fr. Craig Vance's resignation became effective at the end of December 2018 and we wish him all the best as he pursues a new ministry.

That leaves us with more responsibility. I will again assume the role of Ecclesiastical Authority, as I did when Fr. Marvin Foltz resigned and we entered the Search process and I will be responsible to make sure there is Clergy in place during this interim. The Bishop will be assigning a Priest-in-Charge (when a suitable candidate is found) so in the meantime we will be using Supply Clergy at our weekly services.

We will continue in our Lay duties. Successful projects and ministries in place will definitely continue and concentration will still be with our youth, kupuna and community outreach.

As I stated earlier, our responsibilities will increase. We as the Laity of Good Shepherd Church will be the success of the life of our Congregation. As we work together we will have the strength, wisdom and patience to go forward in this journey.

The New Year is just beginning to unfold with surprises and unknowns. Rev. Cn. Sandy Graham will join us at our Annual Meeting on January 27, 2019 and share with us the support of the Diocese.

So even with all the changes ahead we can rest assured we are in God's hands and His presence is with us.

Your in Jesus's name,

K. Peter Lee
Senior Warden

THE RECTOR STOPS IN AT THE LOCAL GROCERY STORE

What an awesome camping trip with an awesome group of people.

It was a fun filled weekend full of relaxation, enlightening, connectivity, and enjoying the beauty and God's wonderful GIFTS.

A hike was led by Lucy Santiago to Waihe'e River, fabulous fishing opportunities was led by Ernesto Pasalo, the tallest campfire ever was led by Tasha Lau, and night crabbing was led by Paxton Sitts-Leyva.

Camping is not complete without food and s'mores. Thanks to Cindy and Keku Akana, Sharon, BJ Santiago, and Flory Pasalo; we were stuffed!!

Thanks everyone and let's work together on scheduling another camping experience.

Samaritan's Purse Shoe Box Ministry

Mahalo nui loa, thank you all so very much for your support this year with filling these shoeboxes with love, peace, joy and lots of goodies for boys and girls. Collectively, we were able to fill 52 boxes. So amazing!

Hands were laid on them today with prayers for each box at Grace Bible Church in Kahului, which was the collection site. They will soon journey to far away countries and into the loving hands of well deserving children around the world.

ECW Holiday Fun'd Fair E aloha mai kakou

Thank you all so very much with your "kokua" and support of the Good Shepherd Episcopal Church Women in Ministry Holiday Fun'd Fair on December 15. It would not have gone as smoothly as it did without the volunteers on Friday night to set up, Saturday's sale and a smaller sale on Sunday after church to parishioners.

We made $577 which is really good considering how slow it got after 10am. Mahalo to all that made purchases and donated items as well.

- * Sharon Daniels (lilikoi/lemon curd, jewelry, swag wreath)
- * Peter Lee (Xmas Wreath, Pink Tree (still for sale), Crocheted Items & House Wares)
- * Ernesto & Flo Pasalo (lemons, rummage)
- * Aline Rolaff and Lynne Takara (donation of plants)
- * Mrs. Oki – holiday gifts – Tees & Shorts for ACCW
- * Rhea – Tees, Sweatshirts and kids clothing-all new

The Christmas tree made by Peter Lee did not sell. Many thanks to Peter for this beautiful donation. It will be on Craigslist for $150 complete, including table, and everything pink. The extension cord as well...or you may call Louise Aloy (808-264-9830) to see if it's still available.

A hui hou.....Malama pono.....Me ka mahalo nui

Good Shepherd Women's Bible Study – all are welcome!

In November, a Women's Bible Study spontaneously started at lunch time (12noon) every Thursday and it is a delightful gathering. We meet for about 1 ½ hours in the St. Matthew room, next to Cora's office. Bring your own brown bag lunch. Each participant brings their own bible and if they have it, a commentary that they find particularly useful. We take turns reading a passage and then discussing. Sometimes we struggle to understand something and will turn to a commentary for help and sometimes we have our own stories to tell that relate to what was just read. There is a lot of joy and laughter, good listening and prayers. If you have any questions please contact Mary Lou at 205-1860 or by email marylou.maui@gmail.com. Please join-in whenever your schedule permits.

ANNUAL ALTAR GUILD TRAINING

Shared Maui Episcopal Church gathering for all four churches!

Saturday, Jan. 19, 2019, 9AM – Noon followed by potluck

Good Shepherd Sacristy and Altar in Wailuku

NEW and EXPERIENCED Altar Guild servers (men or women) and those JUST CURIOUS about the steps and considerations of this service - all are welcome!

Father Hau'oli served on Altar Guild at Good Shepherd for many years and welcomes all that are interested in this "quiet service" to participate in this, hand's on training and thoughtful contemplation of the scope of this service.

be participating.

The Altar Guild is a ministry — a ministry of service. The members (women and men) of the Altar Guild serve the Church under the direction of the Rector and are responsible for setting up and caring for the furnishings in the nave, sanctuary, and sacristy, as well as any other area of the church (building) where liturgy and worship will take place.
