MAY-JUNE 2013

Wind wind blow on me
Wind wind set me free
Wind wind my Father sent
The blessed Holy Spirit

As I was waiting for Carl to finish Bell Choir practice, I heard a familiar tune emerging from the melody and chords. Back in the day, as they say, the youth choir used to belt out this simple anthem. In recent years we have been without a cohesive youth choir, and I sadly miss them.

On the Day of Pentecost, the Senior Choir will take up this anthem again, accompanied by the bells. I can hardly wait. Music doesn't have to be difficult or complicated to speak to us. Some of us reluctantly offer our voices. Others join the lusty chorus, singing out with no shame.

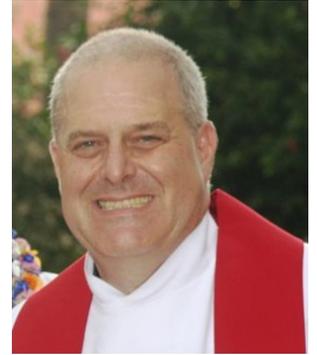

I was so pleased when a group stepped forward to join in the Holy Week and Easter choir. Others have additional talents that are needed, both in the choir and in the Praise and Worship Band. We need basses and altos, but we also need instrumentalists and dancers. We need acolytes, readers of Scripture, prayer leaders and Eucharistic ministers and visitors.

The season of Easter is salted with Scriptures that speak of the wind of the Spirit. In the Hebrew language the same word "ruach" serves as "wind", "breath" and "Spirit". The prophet Ezekiel in the Vigil lessons prophesies to the wind and the dry bones come together, bone to his bone, flesh rises and the Spirit enters reconstituted humanity and reanimates us. The opening of Genesis has the "ruach Elohim" brooding over the face of the waters of the deep, hovering like a great bird over the primordial chaos, stirring the pot of creation. The gospel on "Low Sunday" describes Jesus as breathing the Holy Spirit into his dispirited disciples, sending us in his name and granting us the power and responsibility to forgive sins.

Finally on the great day, the upper room day, the gathered disciples feel the wind again and are touched by fire. Easter begins and ends with fire, but that is another theme. The Spirit blows our way in the Holy Season.

Wind wind blow on me
Wind wind set me free
Wind wind my Father sent
The blessed Holy Spirit

A Note from our Assistant Priest

Aloha all -

Just a quick hello, since I have been away so much this spring. For four Sundays in March, I supplied at Christ Memorial Church on Kauai. In April, I supplied at Good Shepherd on April 21 while the Foltzes are visiting the Big Apple - a first for Fr. Marvin! In May I will supply at Holy Apostles, Hilo; and then I attend one of the long weekends of our "seminary-in-the-islands", Waiolaihui'ia. In June, John and I will be visiting family in Washington and New Mexico, and then attending the Celebration of Life for John's sister Nancy, who died in February.

The more we are away - much as we enjoy getting to know the diocese so much better - the more we delight in Good Shepherd!

With all blessings for the Great Fifty Days of Easter.

FACE

The immigration reform event at St. Theresa on April 5 was a powerful and inspiring event! Mahalo to everyone that made it happen. Thanks especially to the wonderful people at St. Theresa's, the Tongan and Marshallese choirs, and of course Bishop Kicanas for his insight and willingness to visit us on Maui. And none of this would have been possible without the assistance of Sister Charlotte in Tucson, Brother Dennis in Honolulu and Chaminade.

We hope you had a chance to talk with the agencies and community groups with resource tables that evening: MEO, Hawaii Dept. of Health, County of Maui Immigrant Services, immigration lawyer Maria Elena and Catholic Charities.

Remember: Bishop Kicanas called us to action, challenging us to take action to end injustice.

On Giving Memorials in our Parish By: John A. H. Tomoso, Postulant

"Eternal Lord God, you hold all souls in life; Give to your whole Church in paradise and on earth your light and your peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served you here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into your unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen." (The Collect for the Departed in the Book of Common Prayer, page 253)

This prayer reminds us of our beloved dead, who have entered into eternal life, in God's everlasting kingdom. They are our family; brothers, sisters, parents, uncles, aunts. They are our friends and neighbors; those who have journeyed and continue to journey to God with us, in this life and in the next. It is a tradition in the Church, and in our expression of faith, that we surround ourselves with reminders of those who have gone on and entered into "...the unending joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord". If you look around our Sanctuary and Nave and parish campus, you will see many memorials given in thanksgiving for and in remembrance of our beloved dead. These memorials serve as visual reminders of the "...good examples of those who have served" God here in our parish and in the wider Church. Indeed, they are "at rest" and the many beautiful memorials we have, not only help us to praise and worship God, but also give us peace and joy. They remind us of God's grace and mercy, which always stays with and surrounds us. And you don't only have to give "memorials". You can give "in honor" or "To the greater honor and glory of God" or many other opportunities for making a gift and giving to the parish. If you would like more information, please call Cora Brown in the parish office, 244-4656. Please pray for the departed, our beloved dead. Please pray for all in our parish. May God's "light" and "peace" be given to us now and always.

2013 Barrio Fiesta

May 24 & 25

War Memorial Complex

Another year in celebrating Barrio Fiesta. A special two-day event at the War Memorial Complex from May 24 & 25 which honors the Filipino Community & their culture. We will again be serving up some Chow Fun, Halo-Halo, & Shave Ice, just to mention a few. You'll get to experience the flavors of their fragrant and tasty cuisine; with knowledgeable information of what this Cultural Community is made of - having a deeper respect - and a better understanding of where they came from and how far they've come, since their immigration to Hawaii.

Much help is needed during this event. As usual, Good Shepherd has 2 booths, we are in need of volunteers to help set up our booth starting Sunday, May 19, 2013 at the War Memorial Complex and throughout the week. We also need volunteers during the 2-day event to help in the booth with cooking, cashiering, taking orders, working at different food stations, such as halo-halo, chow fun, shave ice, etc.

If you are unable to assist during these 2 days you could also lend a hand in other ways such as presale of chow fun tickets ($7.00 presale tickets/$8.00 without ticket), monetary donations (payable to Good Shepherd Church) towards the purchase of supplies and ingredients or donate the items needed: Paper goods through Maui Chemical with Bessie 244-7311, chow fun noodles 20# at VIP-Cash n carry, ground pork, carrots, bean sprouts, green onions, shoyu, canola oil, kaong (palm nut), sweet potato (purple), sweet kernel corn, cantaloupe, fresh coconuts, white sugar, azuki beans, evaporated milk, sago, gulaman (kanten), shave ice syrup (blue vanilla, orange, strawberry, banana, lemon lime, etc.-Maui Soda & Ice), ginger, garlic, cherry tomatoes, egg plant, long beans, and other pinakbet vegetables. If you would like to donate, please contact Gloria 276-3238, or the parish office 244-4656.

We greatly appreciate everyone's assistance and support to make this event a success!

Shrove Tuesday @ Good Shepherd featured food, fire, fellowship, face painting, beads, crowns, games, music, dancing, and a pinata! The youth did an excellent job of preparing the food donated by our generous parishioners.

A Cup of Cold Water (CCW), A Community Care Van Outreach of the Episcopal Church on Maui

April 2013 Update:

Aloha Friends! It's been a busy February and March for the cup of Cold Water Board members and friends. We continue to move forward in an orderly fashion and don't want to rush into anything, as it is our goal to establish an enduring local outreach on Maui that will symbolize the Love and Compassion of the Episcopal Church on Maui. We want this outreach to be fun, filled with adventure, Christian love & optimism! Our efforts continue:

We have a separate temporary account set up to receive any financial gifting specifically for the Cup of Cold Water at Good Shepherd Church. Checks may be written to "Good Shepherd Church- Cup of Cold Water". Any amount is appreciated to help us get off the ground and running. Please think of us in at your churches plate offering. Checks may also be sent to: Good Shepherd Church, A Cup of Cold water, 2140 Main Street, Wailuku, HI 96793.

We have designated a parking stall for the van, along with a storage area for our stocking & distribution items at Good Shepherd Church.

We continue to ask each church or church member to begin to stock key distribution items to include new caps, headwear, rubber slippers, light jackets, bottled water, sunscreen, band aides, toothbrushes, toothpaste (small tubes), small soaps, alcohol wipes, good condition bibles or new testaments and non perishable food items.

In March, we had our first gathering of interested and committed volunteers at Good Shepherd Church, with 20 plus attendees & board members. We talked about the basic outreach plan and went over the first print of our CCW operations manual.

We have scheduled our first two training blocs for the CCW volunteers which includes, Safeguarding Gods Children, Thursday April 11th @ 5:00 pm, Good Shepherd Church and the CCW volunteer "boot camp" training on Saturday May 4th @ 0800 am, Good Shepherd Church. Anyone is welcome to ALL of the training sessions! Please contact us at acupofcoldwatermaui@gmail.com or call keku @264-6783 if you would like to participate.

We have also locked in Saturday June 8th at St. John's in Kula for our CCW Sexual Misconduct training. This training session is also open to all church members. Further details will follow.

We await word on the funding for the Care Van from the National Episcopal Churches UTO grant Committee. It is expected that we will know if we are gifted monies no later than the end of May 2013. Please pray for us.

CCW Secretary Mary Lu Mellinger continues to keep us focused and on task, by communicating with all of the volunteers & board members updating CCW related contact lists, coordinating Board monthly meetings, working on our newly envisioned CCW brochure and other logistics.

Special mahalo to Mark Sitts from Good Shepherd Church has been supporting the outreach with idea's, planning and leadership.

We wish to extend a deep mahalo to Cindy & Paul Schumacher of St. John's church for their support and encouragement. As most of you know, Cindy writes for the Maui Weekly and she gave our fledgling outreach and our Episcopal ohana some appreciated coverage. Mahalo Cindy!

I attended the first Maui Homeless Alliance meeting at the MEO building in Wailuku and we have begun to network with the current group of volunteers. I must admit, one of my thoughts was: "Why isn't a representative or two from every Christian church here?"

During the month of April, myself and others, will be doing scouting and drive-bys throughout Maui as we begin to develop our basic run routes for our back yard mission work. Flexibility will also be important here.

So we build slowly, we build from the bottom, we build with a few volunteers from our own church pews, other churches and other community friends, we will start slow, we will drive slow, we look and seek for the poor, we will take the time to remember, we take the time to love a few folks in our own neighborhood. We take the time to remember how lucky and blessed we are.

Hey, come "holoholo" with us! Come on! No wait! Join the Maui Love Army!

Aloha! Kekuhaupio Akana
President
A Cup of Cold Water

Hui Pu 2013: "Breaking New Ground"

Jul 05, 2013 - Jul 14, 2013

Not sure what to do with your summer? How about a great camp experience connecting with God and God's beautiful Creation? Hui Pu at Camp Mokule'ia is one thing you will not want to miss! This camp was designed with youth in mind and gives participants the opportunity to experience God through nature and camping while developing friendships and bonds that will last a lifetime. The programming includes such activities as a ropes course, beach art, night fishing, hikes, scavenger hunts, and much, much more, all while developing and fostering faith and spirituality and embracing Hawaiian culture and beauty. Youth will explore different ways of worship through music and art and friendships.

The theme for 2013 is "Breaking New Ground", and it is guaranteed to be an unforgettable event.

As the premiere year of this new camp experience at Mokule'ia, the new camp committee has worked hard to plan for a great summer experience. This year, as we begin new traditions and ideas, we will offer two sessions of camp. The first session, called 'Opio (meaning youth) is for students entering grades 9-12, and will be from July 5-11. The cost for the 'Opio camp is $300. The younger group, called Lokahi (meaning unity), and entering grades 4-8, will be a three day camp this year Friday to Sunday, July 12-14, and is $150. It is the hope that next year both camps will be a full week, and the camp will continue to grow and flourish for many years to come.

KOKUA COUNSELORS: We also have an opportunity for up to 8 youth from the older 'Opio group, to become Kokua, similar to junior counselors, for the younger session of camp. Applicants should be entering grades 10 - 12, and interested in leadership and role modeling for younger youth. Please mark your interest in applying for this role in the registration process, and an application will be sent to you. Leadership training is already planned into the programming of the 'Opio camp. Kokua will stay the entire time of camp, as participants the first week, then serving as leaders for the Lokahi session, with more team bonding and leadership training immediately prior to the Lokahi session.

You may contact Sarah Klitzke, Youth Director, Episcopal Diocese of Hawaii, at \(808\) 536-7776 office \(808\) 673-8079 cell or email: youthdirector@episcopalhawaii.org

the WORD

Plane arrives. Words around me are no longer spoken with elegance. Truth a dying speech among the common, mind drained with exhaustion from meaningless conversation, communion lost through generation, observing the body of Christ walking amongst one another like strangers, words tasteless, battling white noise to my thoughts of purpose, media drowning like brainwash, distracting the motion from a higher calling, sensations of the almighty dissipates as I stand curb side waiting for my ride as though it just blew away with the wind, realizing my pitiful routine of comfort awaits, and understanding that my extreme ecstasy of the spirit downs by the energy of the world.

What happened to the idea of Eden? Where everyday life was awakened as the Almighty intended it. When did we come to the understanding of individuality where fellowship was forgotten in the purest of form? When was the value of a person determined by a man's possessions of worldly materials? What happened to negativity being washed by the anointing of good deed and just because. When did motives come in to play as though there was always something in it for thy self? When did the child like faith disappear from our grasp and grown into the society of today? Pointing of fingers first impressions, judgment upon others sin and perfection put on a pedestal in the eyes of the system. Why do we create idols while creating the destruction to ourselves fading further from the works of the Almighty? A Wiseman said the church is a hospital for sinners not a museum of saints. I contemplate. I question. And H.I.M conference answers.

H.I.M is like medicine for a believer's soul. Lips of speakers on stage are used like channels for the glory of God. Where worship creates colors as you close your eyes and the music draws your hands to the sky by the force of the spirit unconsciously. The energy of truth reveals purpose an identity. This conference allowed me to understand that the only thing we have to offer the Lord is need. God didn't create his children for his need, but created his children for the need of Him. We weren't made to perform to be loved, but we were made, so we do matter. Each of us are conceived from the womb, feeling, needing, desiring, longing, and hoping. Mat. 18:3 "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever then humbles himself as a child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of God." We were made in the perfect image of God but we are imperfect, making us mortal, if we were perfect we would be God, but their can only be one perfect being.

A prayer I wrote inspired by Luke 1:79

Heavenly Father, light burns hotter over a wasteland where life is scarce and thirst is abundant. Drawing us closer to the purest form of life. Sufferings faiths way to breath. Trouble constantly humbles the walk. Diving deeper in ones truth the divine purpose in one's life, completing the circle, the broken chain. Driven to see what the eyes cannot see. Even in ones deepest darkness peace arrives and light is shown upon the path. Walking not with one's eyes but the blindness to better ones self. AMEN.

For The Sake of Louise

An autobiography by Lilia Lopez-Rahman. A mother's triumph over domestic abuse. When Louise disappeared at three what Lilia went through to see her again is a riveting story of love. This mother decided that there was no other option to raise her daughter even if it meant living in hell. What ensued was a tumultuous series of hair-raising choices that would take Lilia through Canada, Sri Lanka, California and eventually Maui. This story has the pace of a thriller that takes the reader through the events of a lifetime.

Call the parish office at 244-4656 if you would like to purchase the book at a discount of $8.
